

THE MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW

JAMES A. COX
Editor-in-Chief
mwbookrevw@aol.com
<http://www.midwestbookreview.com>

278 Orchard Drive
Oregon WI 53575
(608) 835-7937
mbr@execpc.com

MBR Bookwatch: October 2012
James A. Cox, Editor-in-Chief
Midwest Book Review
278 Orchard Drive, Oregon, WI 53575

Helen's Bookshelf

The Wisdom of Wood
✓ Mary L. Peers
27609 NE 36th St., Camas, WA 98607
CreateSpace
100 Enterprise Way, Suite A200
Scotts Valley, CA 95066
wwwcreatespace.com
9781460907276, $13.99, www.amazon.com

Our legacy can always bring us to our limits of challenge. "The Wisdom of Wood" follows Sophie as she inherits her grandfather's work surrounding an unusual ring. When she comes of age, she undertakes her grandfather's work, and finds something that's anything but normal, as she tries to find the meaning of the mythology she unearths. "The Wisdom of the Wood" is an enticing fantasy that draws heavily on symbolism and real world mythology, recommended.

Helen Dumont
Reviewer